

Francine Tryon

I don't know why they would not reinstate it they are a crucial part of the Hoyt lakes area and the iron range. They have not done any harm to our area only good things. Maybe I am just a person who lives in Hoyt lakes and maybe I do understand any of this, but I think yes it should be reinstated.