

denise martin

There is no North Branch Water and Light in existence. East Central Energy bought the assets and the city of North Branch absorbed all the water system and staff. The diesel peaking power generators are at the Maple Street address and are the responsibility of the city as ECE declined to purchase these units.