

Trevor Arens

I ask as a citizen of Northern Minnesota to allow a variance for the sulfate standard, to allow Keetac to continue to mine. We must ask why Minnesota is the only State with a sulfate standard. The 10 mL standard is going to cripple industry and municipalities. There isn't even enough sensible evidence that shows that this will save wild rice beds. Let's use common sense and let's keep Mining flourishing on the Iron Range.