

Courtney Celley

Although mining provides jobs and supports other businesses in our area, I feel water is a precious resource that cannot be replaced. Water is as vital to our national security as is steel and precious metals. I am against issuing a variance to Keetac.