

James Woehrle

I support the initial rejection by the MPCA regarding the proposed variance of waste water quality permit of the Keewatin steel plant. The increased pollution will further impair the production and quality of wild rice.