

Alec Haapala

The wild rice standard of 10 is unrealistic and unnecessary. The current levels are doing no harm to the wild rice. The current limits would ban many bottled waters because of their high sulfate content. Issue the variance.