

Paul Deaner

I'm opposed to Keetac's request to increase the sulfate water quality standard for waters used for the production of wild rice.

I believe they can afford installing controls to achieve the current legal standard.

I'm stunned how long the current standard has not been enforced. Frankly, it's embarrassing.