

Jeff LeDoux

I disagree with the proposed 10 mg/L sulfate levels. The fact that the state is pushing these unattainable unneeded standards and risking this important industry is all you need to know about our current administration