

Matt Baudek

I am a 4th generation miner and would like to see my children have an opportunity to work in the mining industry as I have, in order to make a decision on this shouldn't the standard and rules/regulations be up to current science and experience?