

Ashley Johnson

Keetac has followed all standards while I have been on property. They produce a unique quality pellet. The safe mining that has been performed for many years will continue. I support mining as well as the families this could affect.