

Brian Douglas

Our water sources should not suffer spillover costs from industries trying to maximize profit. If they can't honor laws and agreements already in place and remain profitable, the business shouldn't exist. Please enforce the laws in place and protect our water.