

Michael Lee

I strongly support the MPCA's decision to enforce the restrictions on discharge of sulfate and other toxic substances in the permit to mine and stockpile tailings. Whether a mining company can afford it or not should absolutely not be a reason to consider allowing harmful levels of pollution to enter the environment.