

Connie Lehr

This permit should not be given. The state of MN agencies have ignored the the noncompliance of iron mining for decades and this is the result.

Married to a geologist in MN for 45 years and they see through your acceptance of unregulated mining and bending of the rules. They don't belong in MN and seeing our state now to people like Gonglavis is a stain on the state.