

Stephanie Hemphill

Thank you, MPCA, for enforcing the 50-year-old sulfate standard in wild rice waters! Taconite companies have plenty of capitalization and can afford to obey the law. It's time we stood up to them and insist that they stop polluting Minnesota waters.