

Aaron Klemm

This is a once in a many-generational opportunity to do right by our children and future occupants of this area. Let's commit to the highest impact version of this project so we know we've put our best foot forward. I want to sleep at night knowing we haven't left an embarrassing mess for future generations when we finally have the opportunity to act decisively. Clean it all up!