

Jared Cruz

I support Alternative 6 as the most complete clean-up option that ensures current and future clean and healthy river habitat that is also least likely to require future remediation. It makes the most sense to do it right the first time.