

Jenn Pierson

The only acceptable option is Alternative 6: Removal of all Wastes and Site Restoration. It is the only just and viable alternative to maximize environmental and human health at the site and protect future generations from the consequences of this contamination.