

Robert Luck

The Mississippi River is an American--and Twin Cities--icon. It provides incredible economic and ecological value, and recreation for millions of Americans. Why would we not hold Ford (along with the City of St. Paul and the US Army Corps of Engineers) fully responsible for cleaning up the mess they created? I support Option 6--full cleanup.