

Birgitta Anderson

I believe that a more in depth study into the environmental impact of a production of this size. This is new territory for MN and its citizens deserve the time and attention to their communities that an in depth study provides.