

Billy Schwartz

A project this size, is so very difficult to judge the impact on the natural resources. There is no way this project should be allowed because of the massive size and impact this many animals will have in that area. In MN, I feel we try very hard to keep our natural resources in high regard.