

Matthew Green

Hello, I would like to express my support for the West River Expansion. I lived 3 miles from the West River Dairy for 10 years At the age of 18 out of high school and love for farming. Riverview gave me an opportunity for employment for 8 years which in turn gave me the tools and training to start my own farm. They are great people who care about the community and give small farmers like myself a chance to succeed.