

Briana Isiminger

I vehemently oppose this. It is horrific.

The pollution from such a large number of cows is well documented. Not to mention, how would they ensure the humane treatment of over 18,000 cows and how would the state enforce this? Is there oversight for what will be done with all of the non milk producing calves born to these 18,000 cows?