

Leah Rogne

I oppose the approval of a dairy operation of this size in this location. The concentration of animals is unhealthy and the competition with local dairy operations is unacceptable. Any investigation should go beyond an Environmental Assessment Worksheet and should include extensive testing for airborne and water-carried pollution and thorough examination beyond a cursory look at the potential harm.