

Hannah Bernhardt

I am a farmer and this size project will absolutely have an outsized environmental impact on Minnesota's water, soil, and air. I work closely with my county Soil and Water Conservation District and am Minnesota Agricultural Water Quality Certified because it is the responsible thing to do. We have the right to farm, but I know that how I farm affects my neighbors. I expect reasonable regulation of any industry that impacts public health and well being. Thank you.