

Beth Stanford

To whom it may concern: this expansion concerns every person in our state. Please do not approve this extensive expansion. When is large enough enough? If approved this time, others will push for theirs. We're fighting data centers which are destructors of the environment. Agrobusiness is too much for the environment to handle.