

Vick Konkin

its important to support the livestock industry in our state. Its vital for food security, providing essential nutrition to millions in our and neighboring states. these farms also provide the jobs needed for the rural communities and economies. i do not want EIS.