

Karen Ahrens

I am terrified by the Riverview proposal. Living nearby the Daley Farms in the karst topography of southeast Minnesota, I feel the anxiety of these neighboring communities. These monstrous CAFOs demonstrate selfish disregard for the health, safety and economic conditions of everyone, even their own families. These industrial farms will leave a "legacy" of greed, toxic well water, deserted towns and human suffering.

This is beyond opinion. They are undisputable facts.