

Juan Manuel Palomo Posada

I am in favor of the expansion of the West River dairy. As an employee at Riverview who has been working for 8 years in the dairy operations, the application of manure is an activity that is carried out following the manure management standards required always keeping in mind that work with integrity, responsibility, respect, and safety improves the conditions of our community. I support continuing through the regular permitting process. Thank you.