

Judy Gregg

The damage that this facility would do to the environment...especially to the water quality should be enough to deny a permit to this organization. The unnatural environment created for these animals to live in sounds like an animal concentration camp. Our state should not be condoning this kind of treatment. Please deny this request for expansion.