

Judith Flicker

I am very concerned about negative impacts expansion will impose upon our already fragile environment. Stevens County has the Pomme de Terre River, various lakes, and wetlands that provide homes to a wide variety of birds and animal life. Citizens, such as myself, enjoy the wildlife and the natural habitats they occupy. Environmental impact and conservation must be taken in to consideration before any expansion is approved.