

Patricia Rhoades

Please require a full environmental impact statement on the proposed expansion of West River Dairy. Riverview Dairy is already the largest factory farm in the state with a history of manure spills. This expansion would generate significant greenhouse gas emissions and the manure runoff would lead to increased nitrates and phosphorus. The state needs to consider the impact on our waterways and on human health.