

Emily Rosenmeier

This is a terrible plan, and absolutely must include an EIS, as well as some study of the impact it would have on the surrounding communities. Small dairy farms MN are already struggling, and this proposal would put many of them out of business and create an unwanted monopoly on milk production, as well as create a potential environmental danger.