

Lucio Mincez

Completely oppose. It blatantly defies common sense that this will not produce unmanageable amounts of manure and in tandem water and soil contamination, and deleterious impact on infrastructure. It would not pass a serious investigation on the environmental and economic impact, so I hope the regulatory entities are serious in reviewing this