

Kristin Lamberty

I am concerned about the potential negative impact this expansion would have on our local environment. I don't feel like there has been enough information gathered about how this expansion would impact the lives of people living nearby or the overall ecosystem in which it would be located.

I am opposed to this expansion happening without further study.