

Diane Baum

This expansion comes at a cost to our other smaller dairy farms in and around Morris, as well as sustainability of the aquifer to provide enough water for our future. Groundwater contamination is also a huge concern- I do not feel that this project is what is in the best interests of Morris and our surrounding communities.