

Leslie MacKichan

I have canoed on the Pomme de Terre River - while it is in a lovely setting, the water quality is already "iffy" (I was glad that we never capsized the canoe). Please ensure that a thorough environmental impact assessment is completed and interpreted before this project is authorized.