

John Pierce

Riverview Dairy must submit an environmental impact statement.

Dairy operations are notorious for water consumption AND for point source water pollution. Without an EIS, we will not know the potential harms to weigh against economic benefits.