

Catherine Anderson

To Whom It May Concern:

I just read an article regarding a proposed major increase in size of a dairy farm operation near Morris. It is my opinion that this should be adamantly opposed due to environmental concerns, especially excess water consumption and contamination. Aren't all humans dependent on clean water for our very survival and, therefore, shouldn't we be good stewards of its balanced care?

Sincerely,

Catherine Anderson