

Michael Kennedy

This project, due to its unique size and impact, requires a mandatory EIS. Anything less would be setting a precedent in our state that threatens all future land use for dairy operations by ignoring massive impacts on already fragile natural resources.