

Rosalind Alexson

I can't believe there is any debate about an environmental assessment with an expansion of this size. That should be standard operating procedure. We shouldn't have to be petitioning for this. Of course we want to know how this will impact us. Our very lives depend on it. .