

Herbert Davis

As a rural resident with no connection to dairy producers, I'm offering my opinion as a dairy consumer and a tax payer.

I oppose the ever larger corporate model of dairy farming because it will hurt the environment and reduce rural economies.

Some of the existing dairy operations are already too large from a water pollution perspective.

Stop the ever increasing consolidation, it seems it has gone too far and needs to stop!