

Keith Doane

The expansion is only going to benefit the pockets of its owner and investors. It will not benefit the real stakeholders- the environment and the farmers who need more opportunities in farm business.

Can we even hold Riverview LLP accountable in any case of environment damage in the future? If we cannot guarantee the accountability, then we must not let Riverview LLP have this opportunity to abuse the environment.

Please do not grant this permit to the Riverview, LLP.