

Jonathan Tomic

Had the opportunity to tour a bunch of their facilities, was blown away by how clean, creative, and environmentally conscious they were! They don't let a thing go to waste and are very committed to providing a sustainable future for generations to come! I fully support the expansion of the West River dairy!