

Rebecca Tryon

The Riverview Dairy project must be required to get an Environmental Impact Statement. The potential for a profound impact on local water resources is too substantial to ignore based on data from other large animal agriculture projects. Please require a more extensive review of the potential harms before implementing. The land of 10000 lakes should protect its greatest resource