

audrey gunn

The very least, an Environmental Impact Statement from a party that is not invested in this project needs to be provided. It is irresponsible to other water users and residents of the area to move forward with this permit. There is already increased pressure on water systems. The threat of water contamination is guaranteed based on previous records. Concentrated animal feeding operations degrade everyone involved, including the environment. The profits are not worth the depletion and degradation. Please cease and desist.