

Shelley Kremer

Due to the scale of this project I believe a full environmental review is paramount. My dad grew up on Barrett Lake and my family has a home there now. We have seen the water decline over time and want to make sure this project doesn't cause the decline to escalate. A full and thorough review is needed before something of this scale is approved. The town needs 100% transparency before moving forward.