

Jackson Walsh

We are a local farm by the swift county dairies

Riverview has been great to work with and I believe their permit should be awarded. They have done good work on following current environmental rules and the eis is not necessary.