

John Pierce

This Dairy represents a pollution (health) risk at a time of compounding environmental issues to water quality, air quality, and emissions reductions in the state of Minnesota. It does not make sense to expand confined dairy at this location as proposed in the documents.