

Kay Drache

I grew up on what was then considered a large beef operation of around 1000 head of cattle. The very idea of a confined operation of the size proposed by Riverview is appalling. Please do not let this expansion go forward.

Thank you for your attention and consideration of all the implications of this dairy proposal for people and the environment.