

Audrey Arner

Wow, that's just too many cows in one spot! Because of my concern for the potential for contamination of the gifts of creation, especially including the waters around the proposed Riverview site, an EIS should be absolutely required for this enormous expansion. Please do right by the precious remaining wetlands that are within proximity to this site as well as the civic infrastructure like roads. Come on now.